

WARREN S. JONES
New Church Minister

Warren S. Jones Named Minister Of Area Church

The Redondo Beach Church of Christ, at 6122 Pacific Coast Hwy., this week announced the appointment of its new minister, Dr. Warren S. Jones. Dr. Jones is a native of Virginia, and received his early training in the public school system in that state. He acquired his B.A. degree at David Lipscomb College in Nashville, Tenn. The M.A. and Ph.D. degrees were completed at Wayne University, Michigan.

Dr. and Mrs. Jones have four children and the family resides in the Southwest Los Angeles area. Dr. Jones is head of the Department of Speech at Pepperdine College.

The Redondo Beach Church of Christ looks forward to its association with their new minister and cordially invites the public to become acquainted with its services. Worship services are conducted at 10:50 a.m. and 5 p.m. on Sunday. Bible classes for all age groups are held at 10 a.m. The ladies meet Tuesday night at 7:30 p.m. for Bible Study. The mid-week devotional and Bible Study is Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m.

For his sermon next Sunday morning Dr. Jones has selected, "The Christ Centered Church," and in the evening service he will speak on "Isaiah's Picture of Christ."

Legion to Back Oratorical Test Among Students

An oratorical contest in local high schools in cooperation with the national organization of the American Legion, has been endorsed by Bert S. Crossland Post 170 in Torrance. Newt Mathis, Americanism chairman, requested the endorsement as part of his program for the year.

Full instructions will be given to the high schools, and the local winner will receive a prize donated by the local Post. District, area, state, and national winners will also receive substantial prizes.

Also approved was the giving of American Legion School Awards medals as has been done in the past. During the last Legion year, ten boys and girls received medals, and ten received certificates of honorable mention.

Mathis was also authorized to send one or more boys to Boys State. Last June, Bert S. Crossland Post sponsored Bill Steinwachs Jr. from South High School to Boys State in Sacramento.

Commander Stan Helman and members of the Post are making plans to sponsor another junior league baseball team at the close of the school year. The last team, coached by Ozzie Grimes, won District championship.

Alondra Park Plans Dance Instruction

Classes for adults and teenagers, 13 to 17, are being scheduled at Alondra Park for this fall, and will offer instruction in social dancing, including the fox trot, waltz, cha-cha, and swing.

The adult class will meet each Tuesday evening with the beginners coming in at 7 and the intermediates at 8:30.

The teenagers will meet each Thursday evening at 7. Both classes are offered free under the direction of Janis Villaseñor.
